Summary: On January 8, 2002 between 10:00 and 11:45 a.m., Bruce Foster and David Van Iderstine of Southern California Edison Company attended an all-party meeting with Commissioner Brown and his advisor, David Gamson, and other advisors, Kevin Coughlan and Lynn McGhee. Notes used by Mr. Foster (attached to the Notice) were delivered to Commissioner Brown at his request after the meeting. Messrs. Foster and Van Iderstine urged that with respect to jurisdiction over holding companies, that the Commission should reject the Draft Decision and should approve the alternate decision of Commissioner Duque in that holding companies are not utilities and therefore, not subject to Commission jurisdiction; that with reference to the First Priority Condition (FPC), that the Draft Decision would rewrite regulatory history, would constitute bad policy as a matter of utility finance and was not a substitute for compensatory ratemaking; that no rational business entity would obligate themselves to the open-ended commitment the Draft Decision characterizes the FPC as being.
